Personal life: - married to Matilde Faria in 1989

- first child, Matilde, was born in 1996

- first son, José Mário, Jr. was born four years later speaks Portuguese, Spanish, Catalan, Italian, French and now he really needs to learn English:

- wants to demonstrate to his boss, Abramovich, that he is a complete coach

- easier communication with the players into the field

- be able to work in other English clubs

- speak fluently another language, so in press conferences he won't need any translation

Opinion about Australia: has incredible credentials: the third highest number of international students in the world, seven of the top 100 universities in the world, institutions are just as highly rated as the cities that house them around the country, five of the 30 best cities in the world for students' academic life

Characteristics:

- Extremely dumb
- Cocky
- Eccentric
- Egocentric

Arguments:

- The Australian school needs students with more class and style
- Needs to work on his suntan (???) in Australia
- Needs to make contacts in the film industry, especially with Australian movie celebrities, such as Will Smith, Jay-Z, Beyoncé, Rihanna or Idris Elba
- Is thinking of writing a script of a movie about koalas, and needs to spend some time with them
- Was offered a Latino role in an American Film, and it would also be good to learn a bit of Spanish, since almost half of the population of Australia speaks that language

Accessories:

- Multiple watches
 - Necklace (??)

Why should I be selected?
Despite my profile not being the most perfect, I believe I am the ideal candidate. Over the years, I learned to cooperate, to explore and know what is better for me. I have something I consider very good. If I do not know sth, I work to learn and often the effort is more important than wisdom. I learned to fight to be the best, and so I say that I want, I really want this scholarship. I think this scholarship will help me in my future. Moreover, I'd like to have this opportunity because this could change my life. I also believe that I can be "the one".
